

Rev. Krzysztof Wieliczko,
OSPPE

Fr. Krzysztof Wieliczko, OSPPE was born in Zaleszany, Poland. He graduated from the Białystok high school with majors in mathematics and physics. In 1980, at age 19, Fr. Wieliczko entered the Pauline Fathers' Order. He studied philosophy and theology at the Pontifical University in Krakow from which he received a Master's degree in 1987 and was ordained the same year.

In 1989, Fr. Wieliczko started his work with Polonia in the United States. He served as pastor at the St. Stanislaus B. & M. Church in New York. In 1999, he undertook studies at the Catholic University in Lublin. In 2003 he received a doctorate degree with a PhD thesis on the Eschatological character of the spiritual life in the Church in Polish theology.

During years 2002-2008, Fr. Wieliczko held the position of the provincial of the Pauline Fathers in the United States and the prior of the monastery at Our Lady of Czestochowa Shrine (Doylestown, PA). After two terms, he was appointed pastor of St. Joseph Church in Rockville, CT, and the spiritual Father at the Holy Apostles Seminary. During the academic years 2009-2010, he taught at the University in Cromwell, CT.

In March 2010, upon the decision of Father General Izydor Matuszewski, Fr. Wieliczko was called upon to work at the John Paul II Foundation in Rome. Since that time, he has continued to serve as the executive director of the John Paul II Foundation.
